THE THREE LAYERS

Your Sun is your ego, your Moon is your feeling, your Ascendant is your soul.

Your Sun, Moon and Mercury all sit in Scorpio, in your fourth house. Your ego, your feeling and your thinking are underground, in the house of roots and foundation. What you process, you process alone first and at depth straight away. Your Moon sits at 0 degrees Scorpio, right at the very beginning of the sign, so every feeling arrives as if you are feeling it for the first time. And then your Ascendant: Leo. Your soul is a Leo, wanting to be seen and to give warmth. You were born to be seen and wired to hide.

YOUR PLANETS AND WHAT THEY DO IN YOU

This is yours to recognise and to explore.

Sun	what drives you Scorpio · house 4	Your ego runs on depth. You want to know what is really going on, and you recharge in your own house, not in the world.
Moon	what feeds you Scorpio · house 4	On the very first degree. You feel unfiltered and completely, and you need a den of your own to recover in.
Mercury	how you think Scorpio · house 4	You think like a detective. You believe nothing until you have dug it up yourself, and you say it only once it holds.
Venus	how you love Sagittarius · house 5	Love and beauty have to be about something for you. Freedom and meaning are not a luxury, they are the condition.
Mars	how you act Taurus · house 10 · retrograde	Your strength is slow and immovable. Retrograde means your will went inward first before it was allowed out.
Jupiter	where you grow Aquarius · house 6	You grow through renewal in your daily work. Building systems that set others free, which is exactly what you are doing now.
Saturn	your teacher Cancer · house 11 · retrograde	The strict teacher in the house of the group. You learned early that you had to be the emotional structure. That contract may end.
Uranus	where you break Libra · house 4	The breaker stands in your foundation. Home was never predictable, and you are the one who breaks the pattern.

YOUR ELEMENTS

FIRE	doing, igniting, going first Venus, Neptune, Chiron, Ascendant, Midheaven	5
WATER	feeling, sensing, connecting Sun, Moon, Mercury, Saturn	4
AIR	thinking, speaking, seeing links Jupiter, Uranus, Pluto	3
EARTH	building, sustaining, giving form Mars retrograde, North Node	2

Earth is your thinnest element. Only Mars in Taurus, and it is retrograde. Grounding is not automatic for you, it is a choice. And look where your North Node sits: in Capricorn, the most earthy sign there is. Your direction of growth is exactly your thinnest element. That is not a shortage, that is the assignment.

Across the ten classical planets, the split between outward facing (fire and air) and inward facing (water and earth) is exactly five to five. Between giving and taking in, you were born in balance.

YOUR NUMBERS, YOUR VIBRATION

1 LIFE PATH The pioneer. Go first, explain afterwards. The 1 may learn that needing someone is not failing.

2 (110) EXPRESSION Outwardly you are a 2: mirror, connection, sensing. Built from 1, 1 and 0, two ones carried by the nought. You chose that same number as your company name before you had worked it out.

11 SOUL URGE A master number. Your soul wants to pass on, not to own. Ungrounded, 11 becomes overload; grounded, it becomes transmission.

9 PERSONALITY This is how people read you: someone who has already been through it. They project wisdom onto you before you have said anything.

3 · 7 MATURITY · BIRTH DAY In your second half of life the 3 ripens: voice, pleasure, making. The 7 stays: you have to have looked into it yourself before you believe it.

2 PERSONAL YEAR 2026 Receiving, attuning, patience. For a life path 1 the hardest year there is. Forcing nothing is not standing still this year.

11 SEPTEMBER High tension and clarity. Then October 3, November 4, December 5.

YOUR GROWTH

Not a single number is missing from your birth name. Everything from 1 to 9 is present, and there is no karmic debt number in your date or your name. That is rare. Your growth is not in what you lack, it is in what you took on too early.

Saturn sits in Cancer in your eleventh house, retrograde, right next to your South Node. The old contract: you held the group together, emotionally, for years, without anyone asking. Retrograde means nobody gave you that job. You gave it to yourself.

Your North Node sits directly opposite, in Capricorn in your fifth house. The direction is no longer carrying, the direction is making. Mars, Saturn and Chiron are all three retrograde: this work faces inward, nobody else solves it for you.

Neptune	where you dream Sagittarius · house 5	Your imagination is your source. You see what is not there yet. Watch that you do not love someone's potential instead of the person.
Pluto	where you transform Libra · house 3	Power sits in your words. What you say goes through to the bone, even when you meant it lightly.
Chiron	where your wound is Aries · house 10 · on the Midheaven	The wound of going first, right on your working point. What once hurt is exactly what you now pass on.
South Node	where you come from Cancer · house 11	Where you come from: caring for the group, mothering, carrying. Familiar, and spent.
North Node	your direction Capricorn · house 5	Where you grow towards: building, making, playing, and taking the authority over it without asking permission.
Ascendant	how you arrive Leo	The door people come in through. Warmth, stage, being seen. This is your soul, not your mask.
Midheaven	your visible role Aries	Your calling is to pioneer. Go first, alone if need be, and only afterwards explain what you were doing.
Pattern	what stands out stellium · house 4	Four bodies in your fourth house. Your whole inner world is a workshop. That is where it happens, even when nobody sees it.

YOUR QUALITIES

FIXED	holding on and seeing it through Sun, Moon, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, Ascendant	6
CARDINAL	starting and setting in motion Saturn, Uranus, Pluto, Chiron, North Node, Midheaven	6
MUTABLE	moving with it and adapting Venus, Neptune	2

You begin and you keep going. Cardinal sets things in motion, fixed holds the course, and both are at full strength in you. Mutable is almost absent. Bending and letting go are learned work for you, not natural talent. When something stops working you stay with it longer than you need to, because giving up on a fixed chart feels like betrayal.

YOUR UNCONSCIOUS THOUGHTS

“If I do not carry it, it falls apart.”
Saturn retrograde on the South Node in Cancer, house 11

“Depth is safer than visibility.”
Scorpio stellium in house 4 opposite Leo Ascendant

“I have to understand it completely before I am allowed to begin.”
Mercury in Scorpio, birth day 7

“Going first hurts, so I walk just behind myself.”
Chiron retrograde on the Midheaven in Aries

“If I need something from someone else, I have failed.”
Life path 1, Mars retrograde

“My pleasure has to be earned with something.”
Uninhabited North Node in the fifth house

“If I let go, I lose my grip.”
Six fixed placements, almost no mutable

None of these sentences is true. They were only ever useful once.

YOUR PERMISSION SLIPS

- You may be seen without first explaining why you are worth it.
- You may feel without transforming it straight away. Not every feeling is an assignment.
- You may let go of what is not yours. The group will not fall over. That is the old story.
- You may be slow. Taurus retrograde works at its own pace, and that pace is not too late.
- You may change course. With almost no mutable in your chart that is not a weakness but a muscle you are still building.
- You may go first, without waiting for someone to approve. That is where Chiron becomes medicine.
- You may choose ground under your feet. Earth is your thinnest element, so grounding may be a daily act for you instead of something that comes by itself.
- You may finish something that is only yours. Not for a client, not for the children, not for the group.
- You may play. Your fifth house is the place you have lived in least.
- You may receive this year instead of pulling. A 2 year asks for attunement, not for standing still.

A Leo who learned to behave like a Scorpio. Four bodies underground, almost no earth, six placements that do not change course, a 1 that goes first alone and an 11 that passes everything on. You were never lost, you were remembering.

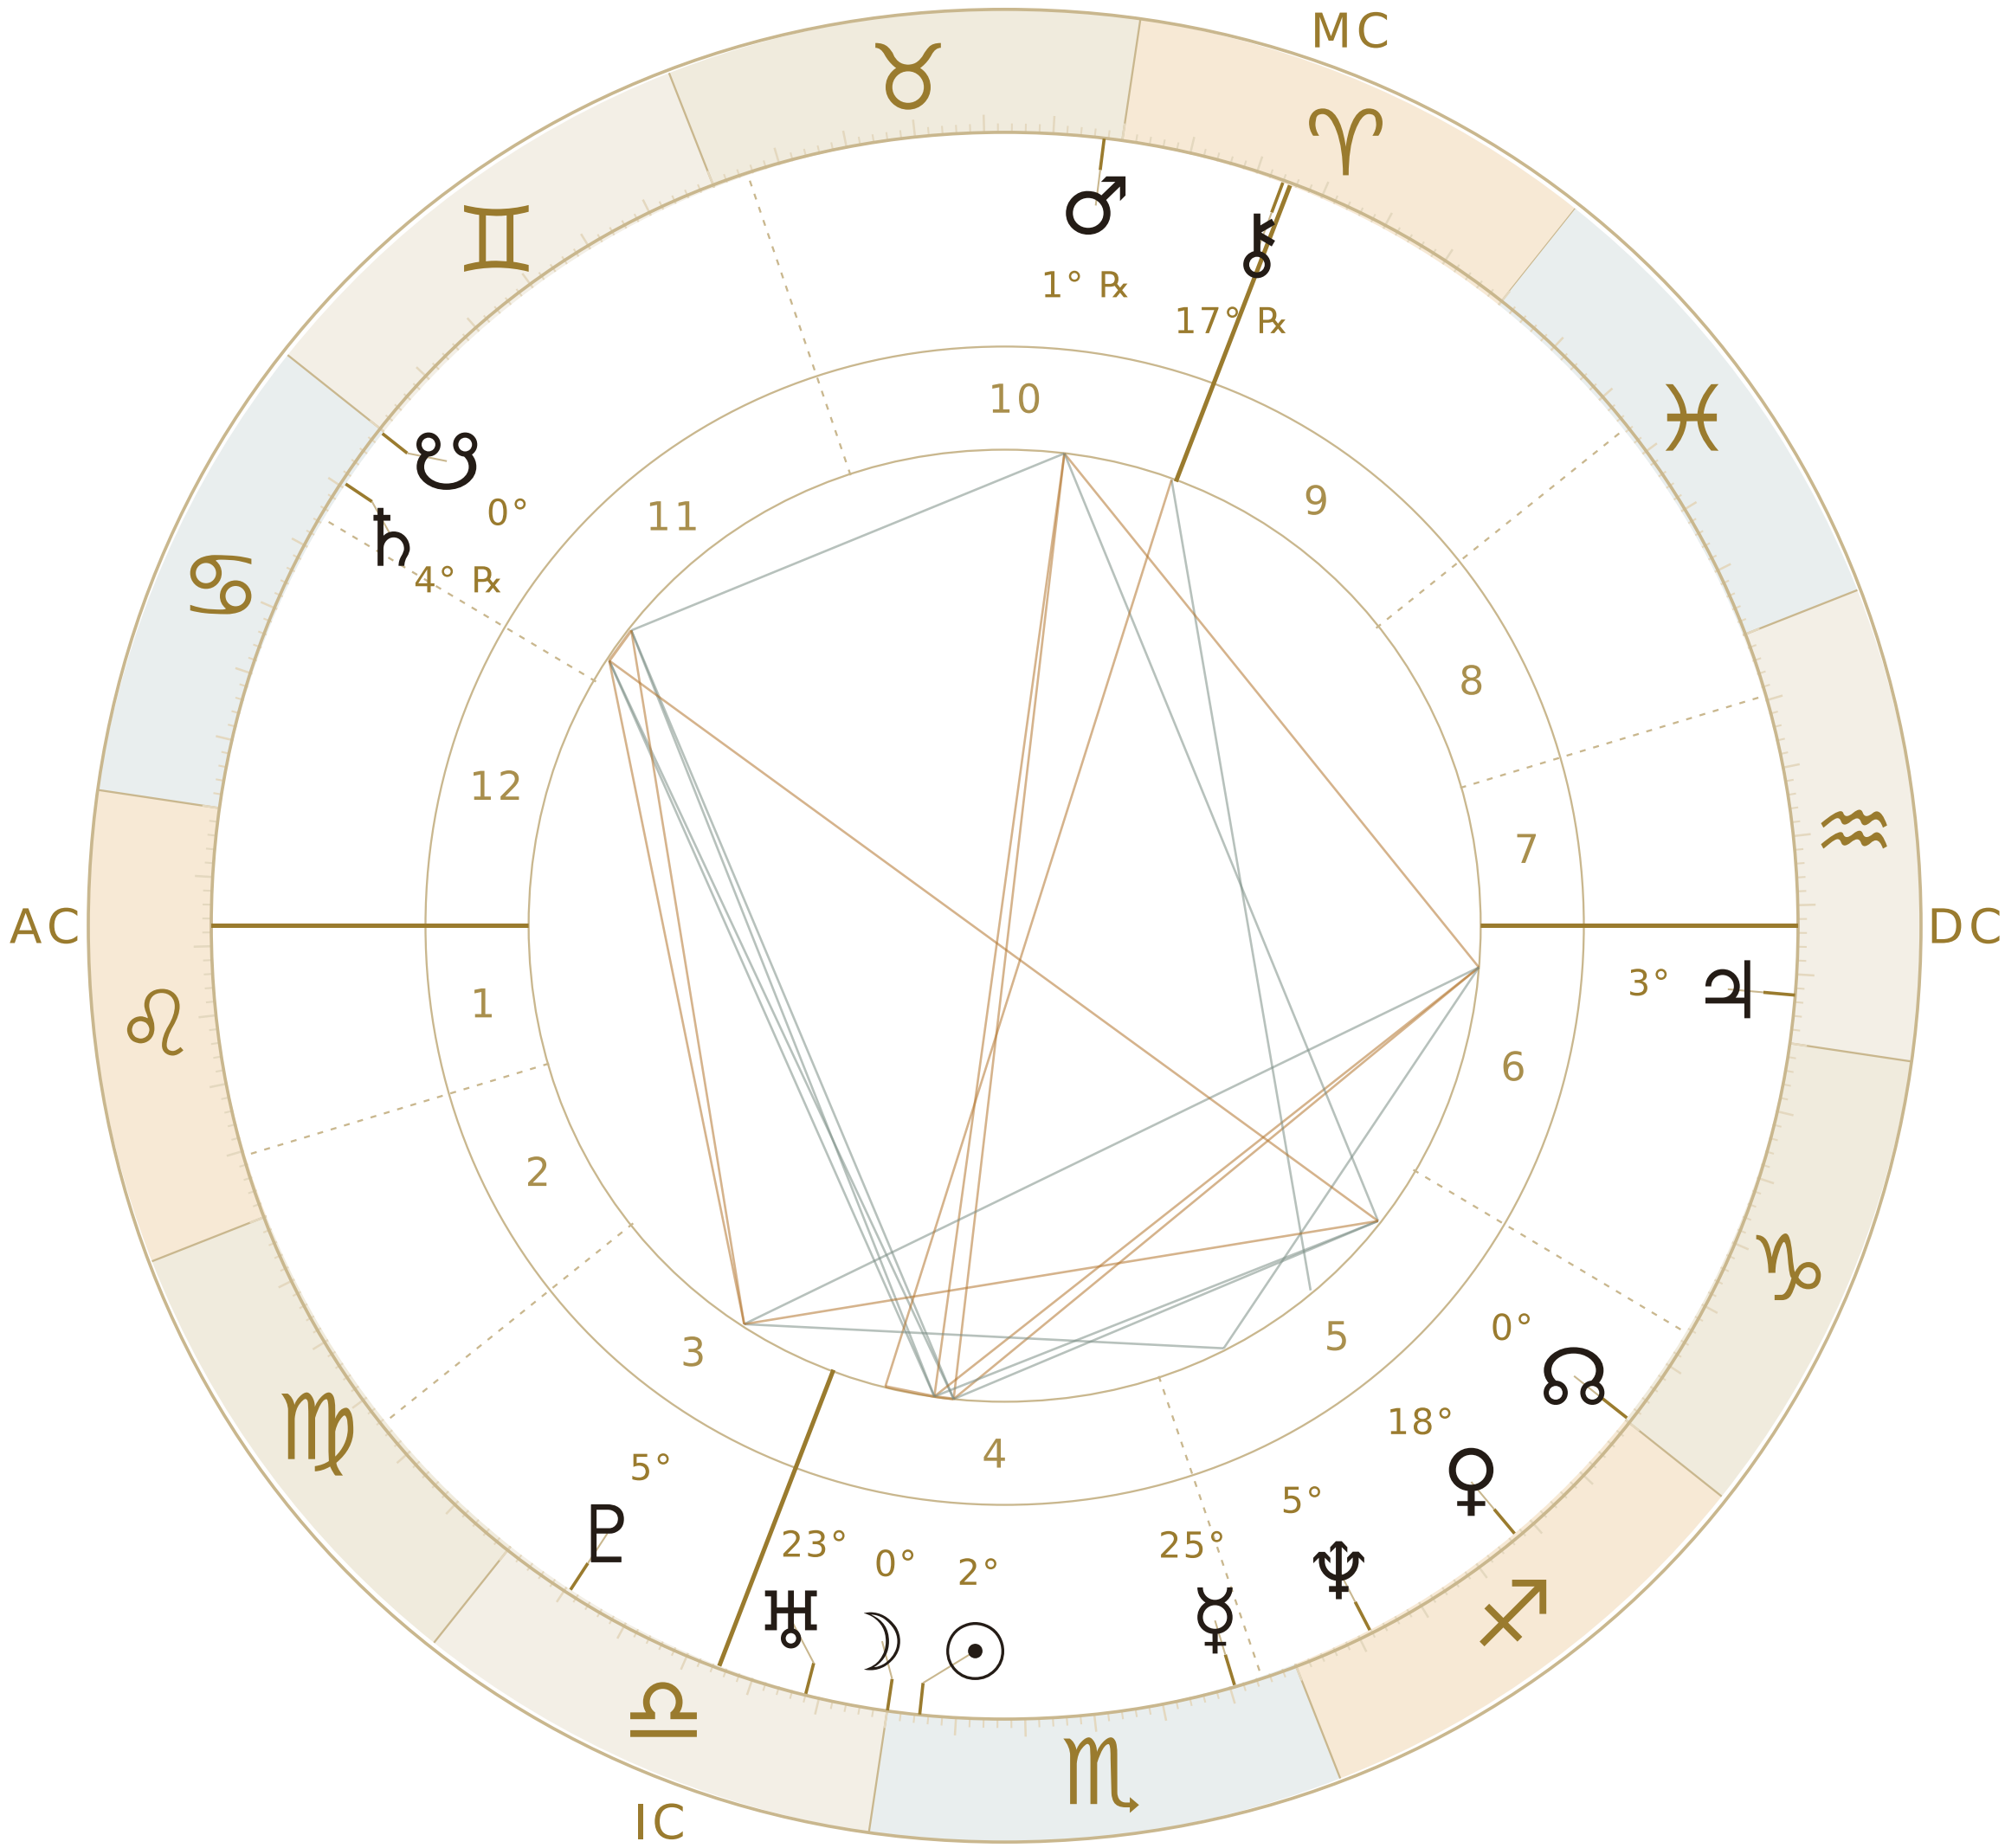

Your birth chart

25 October 1973 · 23:30 · Leidschendam · Placidus · Pythagoras · September 2026

This is the sky at the moment you took your first breath.

The outer ring holds the twelve signs. The spokes inside it are your twelve houses, unevenly divided, because they come from the time and the place you were born. That is why this chart belongs to no one else. The four heavy lines are your angles: the Ascendant on the left, how you arrive, and the Midheaven at the top, your visible role. The lines in the centre are the aspects, the conversations your planets are having with each other.
